

XXI Congress of APISLAVIA 14-18 September 2016, hotel Kazakhstan, Almaty, Kazakhstan

- The Congress will take place in Almaty, which is the largest city of Kazakhstan. The city is situated in the South East of the Republic, in the foothills of the Trans-Ili Alatau; the population of Almaty is around 1.5 mln inhabitants.
- Almaty is the financial, economic and cultural center of Kazakhstan. Here is a large number of business centers, theaters, museums, art galleries, exhibition halls and a vast multitude of modern entertainment complexes (cinemas, night clubs, parks, restaurants, cafes and many other centers).

REGISTRATION

- The registration cost of the participants of the Congress is 60 Euro.
- To pass the registration and book the hotel the participant should send a copy of the passport on the e-mail address: bal-ara.kz@mail.ru before 10 March.
- Presentations and reports should be sent on the e-mail address: bal-ara.kz@mail.ru before 23 June.

VISA

- The participants should have their passports to come to Kazakhstan. The visa should be obtained from the embassy of Kazakhstan in your country before the arrival in Kazakhstan. If you need an invitation letter to obtain the visa, kindly apply to the secretariat of the Congress indicating the address where the original invitation letter should be sent.

ACCOMMODATION

- Hotel Kazakhstan
- Two-bed room - 60 Euro per person per night
- One bed room - 105 Euro per night
- The accommodation costs include breakfast, lunch, dinner and transfer.
- Hotel Kazakhstan is situated in the cultural and business center of Almaty. The windows of this unique 26-storey building face the sight of the magnificent snow peaks of the Alatau Mountains as well as the panorama of the city. The hotel is at the crossroads of Dostyk avenue and Abay avenue, a convenient and modern transportation interchange allows to visit unique attractions of Kazakhstan, which are the skiing resort Shymbulak and the high mountain skating rink Medeo.

EXHIBITION

- An International exhibition will take place within the Congress. The participants will be registered by confirmation sent to the e-mail before 23 June.

CLIMATE

- The average temperature in September is from 20 to 26 degrees.

TOURS

- The technical tours - 10 Euro.
- Tourist excursions will be arranged against an additional request.

REGISTRATION

- bal-ara.kz@mail.ru
- Planning your participation in the Congress, submit your confirmation about your registration or a document confirming your participation in the XXI Congress of Apislavia in Kazakhstan.